

For Travelers with Excess Luggage:

Imagine you've booked an international flight, which allows you a luggage limit of 30 kg, but you need to carry 40 kg. Purchasing an additional 10 kg allowance from the airline could cost as much as ₹3,000 per kilogram, significantly increasing your travel expenses.

With Carrix, you can connect with a fellow traveler on the same flight or heading to the same destination, who has unused luggage capacity. By renting out their available luggage space, you can:

- Save Money: Avoid paying exorbitant airline baggage fees.
- Simplify Travel: Manage your extra luggage seamlessly without hassle.

For Travelers with Unused Luggage Space:

If you're traveling with less luggage than your allowance, Carrix helps you turn your spare capacity into extra income. By accommodating the extra luggage of other travelers, you can:

- Earn While You Travel: Get paid a commission for carrying additional baggage.
- Contribute to a Sustainable Future: Help reduce waste in airline cargo operations by optimizing existing capacity.

Why Choose Carrix?*1) Cost-Effective:
